Photo Exhibit and Debates

Do statues talk? Do monuments narrate our own existence? What is it that we are missing when we walk by them every single day? From the 13th to the 21st of November, a corpus of 20 photographs will form an exhibit entitled "Iconoclastic Controversies" displayed for a week in the Home for Cooperation. An opportunity to witness a visual sociology on the Cyprus problem. In addition, two debates will be organized during the period of the exhibition. They will take place on November 18th and November 19th at the H4C from 18:00-20:00. These debates will allow the audience members to reflect on the role of history, memory and identity in Cyprus. For full details see here.

Book Launch: Music in Cyprus

Music in Cyprus draws its authors from both sides of the divided island to give a rounded picture of musical culture from the beginning of the British colonial period (1878-1960) until today. The book crosses conventional scholarly divides between musicology and ethnomusicology in order to achieve a panorama of music, culture and politics. The launch will take place at the Home For Cooperation on 30 Oct. at 6pm. The book will be presented by Stavros Karayanni and Mete Hatay. More info here.

Overcoming Borders - Call for Entries

AHDR, Cinema for Peace Foundation Berlin, and Goethe-Institute Nicosia in cooperation with the CFP are organizing a short documentary competition for young amateurs on the topic of 'Overcoming Borders' with a ceremony in December 2015 to honour the prize-winning films during a public screening. All applicants must be between 15 – 25 years old and the deadline is Oct. 31st. Please click here for more information.

changes have been taking place in the Mediterranean and Middle East and North Africa region. In the melting pot of change, the region's youth has been both a driver of change and one of the main groups that is suffering the consequences of these crises. ECFOLI is an innovative Media and Information Literacy (MIL) project that seeks to address these issues and implement solutions for their benefit by analysing important issues with regards to the environment, health and cultural heritage, offering the opportunity for the youth to meet, and establish sustainable skills in conflict management and resolution.

The training aims to create a learning environment for young people so that they can apply lessons of entrepreneurship to the context of Human Rights and submit proposals for testing potentially sustainable projects/programmes or pilot organisations within a week filled with hands-on training! There will be 2 sessions of training held, the first in Famagusta from 2-6 of November, and the second in Nicosia from 9-13 of November. See here for registration information.
